

I am complaining that the FCC has not done its civic duty to stop Sinclair broadcasting from a clear abuse of electioneering. For one media baron to use the public airwaves as his own personal lobby forum is truly undemocratic. Any fairminded American would agree.